PAYING IN CENTS.

Creditors May Refuse Large Sums of Small Change.

Ordinarily when a debtor appears before a long time creditor there is no questioning of the United States coin in which the debt is to be paid, but the wide possibilities possessed by an arbitrary creditor in stipulating just what coins and in what amounts he will receive payment are enough almost to discourage borrowing.

You can't force a mean creditor to take more than 25 cents' worth of nickels or 25 cents' worth of copper cents. If you could get as much as $5 worth of old silver three cent pieces of another generation you could unload $5 worth on him, just as he would have to take $5 worth of the silver five cent pieces and $5 worth of the obsolete twenty cent pieces, which made so much trouble in the late seventies. But you can pay out $10 in silver dimes and silver quarters and silver half dollars. The trade dollars, of which there are a few still coming into the treasury of the United States for redemption, are worth nothing, while the standard dollar is an unlimited legal tender, as is the old "dollar of our dads," the first of which was coined in 1794 and the last in 1873.

Coins that virtually have disappeared from circulation are gold three dollar and one dollar pieces, the trade dollar of silver, the nickel three cent piece, the copper two cent piece, the copper half cent and silver three and five cent pieces.—Omaha World-Herald.

German Paternalism.

American tourists returning from Europe bring back stories of the paternal watch which is kept upon them in Germany. One woman was requested by a policeman to hold up her gown, which was a trailing, elaborate affair of lace and chiffon. It was after dinner, and she was taking a stroll with her husband through a park whose immaculate walks seemed to offer no harm to its delicacy, so she let it hang. The policeman was polite enough. He informed her gravely that any dress that was allowed to trail was liable to collect undesirable matter and prove injurious to health, and he reminded her that one time a law was under consideration to make the wearing of such skirts a misdemeanor.—New York Tribune.

FRIENDSHIP.

It Imposes Serious Duties Upon Those Who Court It.

"When acquaintanceship ripens into friendship, something serious has come into one's life," writes Mrs. Henry Graham in the Onlooker. "I don't think that any one can or ought to afford to have more than one or two really intimate friends. If love has gone with friendship—that is, if the gates of paradise have been opened to you, and the guardian angel has sheathed his flaming sword and admitted you through the portals—then you must have given everything, and you have very little left to give. A man can have a man friend and a woman a woman, because there are places where men meet men and women meet women alone, neutral ground where the other sex cannot enter because of its limitations, and there real friendship may live and thrive on the crumbs which fall from the rich man's table.

"For friendship implies something serious. You must give of yourself, your real self, and once given it cannot be taken back. One has no right to give up a friendship unless the other person agrees or unless it has become an absolute impossibility, and even then all the obligations of it may survive, while the delights of it die."

King Alfonso's Bet.

When the king of Spain was at Xeres he greatly admired a horse belonging to Senor Rivero, one of the notables of the town, who at once presented him with the animal. The king refused the gift, but the other day at the pigeon shooting at the Casa de Campo, near Madrid, a match was arranged between the king and Senor Rivero. The stakes were, on the king's side, a gold piece of 100 pesetas, and on Senor Rivero's a souvenir of Xeres.

Like a skillfull courtier Senor Rivero lost and sent the king the horse which he had so much admired as a souvenir of Xeres. The king could not refuse to accept, but he at once sent the senor one of the best horses in the royal stable in exchange.—London Sketch.

A Mare's Nest.

A "nightmare" was supposed by our ancestors to be the Saxon demon Mara, or Mare, a vampire which sat upon the sleeper's chest and was regarded as the guardian of hid treasure, over which it brooded, as a hen over her eggs, and the place where it sat was termed the nidus, or nest. When any one claims he has made a great discovery which is really no discovery at all we say he has discovered a "mare's nest," a place where an imaginary treasure lies.

The Cause of the Trouble.

"What is the matter with that baby?" growled an irascible husband as the little one persisted in howling and kicking to the extent of his little might.

"The matter is, sir," calmly replied the wife as she strode up and down the room, "the matter is that this baby inherits your temper."

And the husband returned to his paper with a gloomier look than before.

When Panic Stricken.

Panic stricken, he gathered the disintegrated money into an old pillowcase, bound it around his waist beneath his clothes and started for Washington. He traveled part of the way on horseback, part of the way on an Ohio river steamboat and part of the way by train. During the journey he never once took off the pillowcase. He even slept with it on. The officials of the treasury department found it difficult to make him part with it.

He did not want to go with a clerk to a hotel for fear the clerk might rob him, but as it was manifestly impossible for him to disrobe in the office he had finally to submit. They got the money at last, and the condition of it was so bad that the treasury expert had to be called to decipher it. So great was her skill that the farmer lost only a few hundred dollars out of $19,000.

COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.

Saturday, January 14, 1905.

D. E. O'KEEFE.....EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

FRANK P. FLINT.

The election of Frank P. Flint to the United States Senate by the Legislature gives universal satisfaction. Mr. Flint has risen from a small begining to a proud position through industry, ability and energy. He owes his success to his own efforts. The old adage that "the world belongs to the energetic," is a true one. Mr. Flint in starting out on his career had nothing but a strong will to make his mark in life, and by hard work, push and energy captures the goal of his ambition.

It is quite evident that the Legislature will not take favorable action on the proposition to recede Yosemite Valley to the National Government. That being so Senator Curtin's bill appropriating $300,000 to erect a new hotel in the valley should pass. Previous appropriations for the same purpose have been vetoed because of a stringency in the State finances, but no such reason exists at this time. Meanwhile the necessity for a new hotel in the valley has become more pronounced. California is in honor bound to provide proper hotel accommodations in the valley if that natural wonder is to be retained by the State, and therefore it is to be hoped that the Curtin bill will pass and be signed by the Governor.

The Governor calls attention to the fact that nearly one-half of the income of the State is used for purposes of education. The average yearly income of the State is about $10,000,000. Last year, for purposes of education, the State spent $4,930,781. It is recommended that the system of distribution of State funds be revised so as to secure greater quality between the counties. As it now stands, the larger and wealtheir counties receive more from the State per teacher employed than do the smaller counties. Alpine county, for instance, receives $249 per teacher, while San Francisco receives $783.

Senator Mitchell of Oregon is the third Senator to be indicted during the Presidency of Mr. Roosevelt for frauds on the Government. The other two are Burton of Kansas and Dietrich of Nebraska. The former was convicted and his case is now on appeal, but the latter escaped on a technicality. The removal of District Attorney Hall is proof that the President has good reason to believe that that functionary was shielding influential and high-placed criminals. Hall secured his appointment mainly through the influence of Senator Mitchell. Congressman Binger Herman, who was dismissed from the office of Commissioner of the Land Office by President Roosevelt, because of the special favor he had shown land grabbers, is also under indictment.

Mrs. Chadwick was reported to "talk" before going to her tomb's cell. If memory serves us right this was not the first time that this particular lady had used her tongue with good effect.

The Winter Route East.

When you think of going East, think of the Texas & Pacific, the true Southern Route, as it is called.

We can plan for you an ideal Winter trip through the fertile San Joaquin Valley or down the picturesque coast line of the Southern Pacific via Los Angeles, journeying through the beautiful orange and olive groves of Southern California, getting a glimpse of the Old World civilization of Old Mexico en route and on through the cotton fields of Southland.

News comes from Honolulu that the federal grand jury are contesting the seating of Prince Jonah, who was re-elected as delegate to Congress. Jonah has always stood for contention, but heretofore, we blamed the whale.

President Roosevelt's favorite maxim is: "It's better to be faithful than famous."

AFGHAN FEUDS.

Towers of Refuge From Which the Warfare Is Conducted.

In Afghanistan the people are good haters. The blood feud exists in all Afghan tribes. When a murder occurs the avenger does not limit his reprisal to the murderer, but kills any relative that comes handy. This, in turn, calls for a counter attack, and in time matters become so complicated that whole families are wiped out. When the tribe is called upon to meet a common enemy the heads of the families who have had a quarrel bury two stones side by side in the presence of the mollah as symbolic of the feud being put out of sight during the public danger. When affairs revert to their normal state the stones are solemnly disinterred and the two parties are free to go on shooting at each other again.

Every Afghan villager of moderate means owns a tower of refuge standing at the corner of his courtyard. These towers, made of stone and mud, are perfectly solid for the lower twenty feet or so, the top being surrounded by a loophole wall and covered over to make it habitable. The base is protected by a gallery, and the only means of ascent is by a rope and a hole just large enough for one man to crawl through. Whenever a man has made things too hot for himself he takes refuge in his tower, and by the unwritten law of the country he can never be starved out so long as food and water are brought to him by a woman.

A traveler in Afghanistan tells of seeing one tower of refuge whose occupant had not stirred outside for ten years. His only amusement was taking shots at the occupant of another tower, which were duly returned. In the meantime their wives visited each other and gossiped and were on terms of perfect amity.

A GRIM TRAGEDY

is daily enacted, in thousands of homes, as Death claims, in each one, another victim of consumption or pneumonia. But when coughs and colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntley, of Oaklandon, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which cured her, and to-day she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guaranteed at 50c. and $1 by P. A. Ryan, druggist. Trial bottle free.

A French scientist declares that dyspepsia can be cured by smiling. He neglects, however, to explain how dyspeptics may succeed in getting themselves to smile.

SICKENING SHIVERING FITS

of Ague and Malaria, can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This is a pure, tonic medicine; of especial benefit in malaria, for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to Quinine, having none of this drug's bad after effects. E. S. Munday, of Henrietta, Tex., writes: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, till he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life. At P. A. Ryan's Drug Store: price, 50c., guaranteed.

SPOILED HER BEAUTY.

Harriet Howard, of 209 W. 34th St., New York, at one time had her beauty spoiled with skin trouble. A quick and sure healer for cuts, burns and sores. 25c at Ryan's Drug Store, Redwood City.

A Fine Building.

The stone work on the new courthouse is now all completed with the exception of the projection over the front entrance, which can not be put on until the old courthouse is removed. The building as it now stands shows what the finished structure will be. The rough stone base and the smooth, solid superstructure presents as fine an exposition of architecture as can be found in the State.

San Mateo county may well be proud of the judgment of its Supervisors, who planned so well for the building, which, when it is completed, will stand for ages as a monument of the good sense and foresight of the people of San Mateo county, who have willingly expended their money for its erection.

A VISIT TO SUTTER'S FORT.

Visitor to Sacramento Interested in an Old Landmark.

SACRAMENTO, CAL., Jan. 12, 1905

ED. TIMES-GAZETTE: This week the Legislature really proceeded to business. The telegraph and the daily papers have kept you informed of the Senatorial fight. Now the members of both houses are introducing bills and the State Printing Office is kept busy, because all the bills passed to print have to be put in type immediately. The State printers have to handle many bills which never become laws but die almost in the printshop. However, the work has to be done and some sessions have a record of considerably over a thousand bills that made work for the typos.

Our fraternal friend, R. H. Jury of San Mateo, appears to be quite at home in the Assembly. The other night I met him also at his hotel, the Golden Eagle. The hotel corridors are where the legislative lobby and the festive newspaper reporter get in much of their work. They line the room like a lot of hotel-runners and pounce down upon their victims unawares. The newspaper reporter is considered the hardest game of all. To him you are expected to give up your reputation and your soul. If you do not do so willingly you may do so unconsciously—and there you are. But in this bustling city the promenade affords a pleasant escape, so that many adjust their overcoats and in company with friends pass many pleasant moments strolling along the pike.

The legislative session is really a routine matter in Sacramento. It adds materially to the transient population and increases the volume of business transacted, nere; but Sacramento by virtue of its location is naturally a great business mart and is a thriving place at all times. Sacramento is the center of a great inland empire. Thousands of miles of rich soil form its immediate back-country, and still beyond rise the foothill and mountain districts where mines and mills, electric power plants, orchards, lumbering, stock-raising and varied industries are creating continuous wealth to its way back to the Capital City and to the metropolis.

The main thoroughfare of Sacramento has its beginning at the river and thence runs straight as an arrow for some two miles or more out to Sutter's Fort. Residences line this boulevard for the whole distance, but at Sutter's Fort the improvements are more modern and particularly inviting. It is a great surprise to many who go out to Sutter's Fort for the first time to see how beautiful homes have clustered around this historic spot, as if to venerate it and keep guard over it. The old fort itself still remains, its adobe walls protected by a wash of cement except at a spot near the door where visitors enter. Here a glass panel has been inserted so that the wall can be seen in its original condition.

Sutter's Fort occupies a beautiful block of land, the buildings being on a slight elevation and showing to good advantage. The surrounding courtyard walls have been rebuilt of brick. Square watch towers with loopholes mark the corners. The warm-colored red tile of old Mission architecture tops off the walls and roofs and complete a very captivating picture. Once within the massive wooden gates the suggestion is of the hiciendas of former days, the main building in the center and the various workshops strung along the sidewalls, all properly designated by neatly painted signs indicating their original use.

Sutter's Fort is a great heritage to Sacramento. As the years go by it will become more and more a place of attraction. It is well kept up and contains some interesting relics of the days of Sutter and Marshall and the vast throng who made the overland journey in the grand rush to the placer diggings.

Sutter's Fort is easy to reach. The city electric cars will land you within one block for a nickel, and the trip is well worth taking. Visitors to Sacramento should by all means see Sutter's Fort.

Yours truly,
W. H. ADAMS.

Jury Is a Busy Man.

Assembly R. H. Jury has received deserved recognition among the Legislators at Sacramento. He is chairman of the Committee on Public Printing, one of the most important Committees of the Assembly. Mr. Jury is a member of the following other committees: Building and Loan Associations, Commissions and Public Expenditures and Daires and Dairy Products.

Mr. Jury has introduced a bill defining a newspaper, and providing, among other things, that legal notices and Government advertisements shall not be printed in a paper that has not been in existence at least two years.

He voted for Flint for United States Senator on Wednesday at the final vote and will therefore have influence with the new Senator. Mr. Jury is popular with all the Legislators and is in a position to be of great benefit to the county.

Congregational Church Meetings.

The 42d annual business meeting of the Congregational Church was held in the parlors of the church last Thursday night. Rev. C. C. Kirtland called the meeting to order and presided as moderator. The clerk's report showed 102 members, the report of the treasurer showed the church to be entirely out of debt with a surplus of $37 in the bank.

The following officers were elected to serve during the coming year: Clerk, Clara M. Shelley; treasurer, Lidia M. Brown; deacons, C. J. Bettin, and John W. Glennan; trustees, Robert Brown, J. L. Pipkin, F. H. Thorpe, Mrs. Geo. H. Rice and Mrs. J. Kreiss of Woodside.

Before the business meeting a banquet was served which was much enjoyed by all present.

City Council Issues Call to Contractors for Bids.

Marsh Land May Be Filled and Fertilized with the Contents of Town Sewers.

The City Council is getting down to responsible work in preparing to make use of the $100,000 recently voted for public improvements. At the meeting Monday night Councilman Walker presented the following report of Engineer Gilbert regarding the size and location of the new water pipe that is to be included in the proposed improvements:

On C street from Seventh street to Eighth street.
On Second street from A street to D street.
On D street from Second street to Fourth street.
On Third street from A street to D street.
On Fourth street from A street to D street.
On Seventh street from Arguello street to Fourth street.

On Thirteenth street from Arguello street to B street.
On Eighth street from Arguello street to county road.
On School lane from Main street to old school grounds.
On county road from Jefferson street to Roosevelt avenue.
On Blaine street from Jefferson street to Roosevelt avenue.

Mr. Gilbert estimated that the water mains and the laying thereof would cost $35,000.

The report was adopted, and it was decided to at once issue a call for bids for the material.

Two proposals were presented for furnishing the material and installing eleven new arc lamps and changing the location of two others, as follows:

United Gas and Electric Company	$1295 00
Standard Electric Construction Company	1730 00

On motion of Walker the contract was awarded to the United Gas and Electric Company.

The new lights are to be placed at the following locations:

At the intersection of A and Fourth streets.
At intersection of Stambaugh and Chestnut streets.
At intersection of Chestnut and Heller streets.
At intersection of Thirteenth and B streets.
At intersection of C and Eighth streets.
At intersection of county road and West Union lane.
At intersection of county road and Eighth street.
On county road 100 feet south of first bridge north of Jefferson street.
On Jefferson street two blocks west of county road.
At intersection of county road and Beech street.
At railroad crossing near the Finger bridge.

The light now located at the old Pioneer brewery is to be moved to Mound street, corner of Pine, and that at the intersection of Mound street and the county road is to have its position so changed as to give equal illumination to the three intersecting streets.

It was decided, in view of the proposed improvement of A and Main streets, to have those thoroughfares cleaned and the waste material deposited on some of the side streets, to be used for filling. Arnold Bess agreed to do the work and deposit the mud where directed at a cost of 50 cents per cubic yard, which offer was satisfactory to the board.

The petition of certain residents, presented a week ago, asking for an arc light at the corner of Fourth and Seventh streets was taken up, and after a lengthy discussion, in which all of the members and several citizens joined, the board voted unanimously to grant the petition.

G. J. Liguori addressed the board, stating that he had dyked a tract of marsh land east of the tannery which he desired to fill up, using the city sewage for that purpose. He stated that his plan was to place a pump over the reciving cistern at the end of the sewer main and pump the contents over the reclaimed land.

His request was referred to the attorney for an opinion as to the city's power in the matter.

"A NOBLE OUTCAST."

A Pleasant Evening With Redwood Amateurs To-Night.

The Dramatic Club will produce "A Noble Outcast" to-night at the Alhambra. The play is a very good one, and the individual actors have entered into their parts with such a zest that the production will add new laurels to their previous achievements.

"A Noble Outcast" is a four-act drama of seven characters.

W. A. Shrewsbury will act the leading part of Jerry. Mr. Shrewsbury is well qualified to handle the most difficult problems and the way he assumes the character of the tramp is pleasing to see.

The scene of the drama is in the south and the story centers about the love affair of Jack Worthington and France Lee. The villian aided by Jerry attempted to kidnap the heroine and actually carried out his designs, but in the end is exposed, the right man rescues his lady love and they live happily ever afterwards.

The play is in three acts and will hold the audience throughout. General admission is twenty-five cents, reserved seats fifty cents. It is useless here to tell of the good work being accomplished by the kindergarten, for which the play is given as a benefit. Everyone in town should be and should urge his friends to attend. The hard work of the dramitic club is deserving of a crowded house and all present will be as well pleased as they were with "Santiago" and "Charley's Aunt."

The cast of characters is as follows:

Gerald Weston (known as Jerry the Tramp)	W. A. Shrewsbury
Col. Matthew Lee (a Southern banker)	R. Olliver
James Blackburn (his nephew)	Charles Roller
Jack Worthington (Blackburn's rival)	James Fayen
Officer Ferguson	Albert Mansfield
Mrs. Lee (wife of the colonel)	Miss Eva Rockwell
France (a disputed possession)	Miss Bliss Rockwell
Sadie (faithful but free)	Miss Edna Wilson

All the Comforts of Home.

The new regime goes into effect at the Majestic Theatre, San Francisco, with the week beginning next Monday night when Bishop's New Company of players makes its first appearance at the handsome theatre presenting William Gillette's clever comedy "All the Comforts of Home". The organization is one of the two combinations that will alternately present in future the attractions at the Majestic and is formed of a number of well-known local favorites as well as other clever players who have proved their title to their high position in the stage world in other cities where they were connected with leading organizations. "All the Comforts of a Home" had a great go in the East and it is replete with lines, situations and scenes which appeal to the laughter of the audience. It will be a strong bill to succeed "Mizpah" which receives its closing performance on Sunday evening. Hereafter there will be matinees on Thursday, Saturday and Sunday at Majestic Theatre. The Thursday prices will remain as heretofore, 25 cents to all parts of the house. On Saturday and Sunday 25 and 50 cents will be the schedule. Night prices 25, 50, and 75 cents.

Building the Electric Road.

Work has commenced on the Parkinson road, which is to run from San Mateo to Santa Clara and connect with the San Jose line there. A San Francisco company has the contract. It put 75 men and 25 teams at work between Palo Alto and Mayfield. The ground will be ready for the rails within two weeks. As soon as this stretch is finished the construction of the rest of the line will be rushed.

At Mayfield there is a fight between the San Jose-Los Gatos Inter-urban company and the Parkinson road for a franchise through the town. The place occupies a peculiar position because of the university grant surrounding it and through which a road cannot be built. The Parkinson people have asked the town trustees to sell them a franchise through the place without bidding, but the city attorney has declared that such cannot be done. The inter-urban has also asked for a franchise over the same route.

If it comes down to bidding for the franchise it will bring a financial struggle. The Parkinson people declare they will mandamus the trustees of Mayfield to grant them the franchise.

DEATH OF A PIONEER WOMAN.

Mrs. Judge Wallace Answers the Summons.

Mrs. Judge J. S. Wallace, who has lived in the Santa Clara valley for nearly a half century, passed away in Los Gatos, Wednesday, at a ripe old age.

Since 1860 Mrs. Wallace resided at Mayfield and at one time owned considerable property there, the Baron place being part of her holdings. Her husband was one of the foremost lawyers of the state and up to the time of his death in December, 1898, continued in active practice, and was many times seen in the local courts. Mrs. Wallace was very prominent, socially, in the older days, and on the completion of the railroad from San Francisco to San Jose, in 1863, she was given a great banquet and reception at Mayfield by the high officials of the road for the part she had taken in securing certain rights of way.

For the past few years Mrs. Wallace has made her home in Los Gatos.

The remains of the deceased lady will leave Los Gatos this morning on the 7 o'clock train and will arrive here at 8:07. The interment will then take place in Union Cemetery, where she will be laid to rest beside her husband.

Her son, Talbot H. Wallace, was for years Librarian of the State Library at Sacramento.

A Letter-Carrier Examination.

The United States Civil Service Commission announces that a clerk-carrier examination will be held at Palo Alto, California, January 28, 1905, for the purpose of securing eligibles from which to make certification to fill a vacancy in the position of substitute carrier in the postoffice service in that city, and other similar vacancies as they may occur in that service. Persons desiring to compete should at once apply either to the local secretary, Board of Civil Service Examiners, Postoffice, Palo Alto, California, or to the District Secretary, Board of Civil Service Examiners, Postoffice, San Francisco, California, for application form 1371, which should be properly executed and filed with the District Secretary at San Francisco, Cal., not later than 4 p. m. of January 25, 1905.

Masonic Installation.

The installation of the newly elected officers of San Mateo Lodge, No. 168, Free and Accepted Masons, occurred on the night of December 31st at Masonic Hall and it brought out a large attendance of the members of the local lodge and also visitors from Palo Alto Lodge. The installing officer was the retiring Worshipful Master C. G. Landscheit, who installed the following officers: Worshipful Master, T. O. Heydenfeldt; Senior Warden, John MacBain; Junior Warden, T. C. Rice; Treasurer, L. P. Behrens; Secretary; Marshal, E. B. Fox; Senior Deacon, A. L. Lowe; Junior Deacon, A. Graham; Senior Steward, R. C. Holmquist; Junior Steward, Geo. H. Leary: Tyler, R. F. Rumbol.

A banquet followed the ceremony.

Edward Genochio a Benedict.

The wedding of Miss Lillian Marcel and C. P. Genochio took place last Sunday night at 6 p. m. in the St. Domonic church, San Francisco. The ceremony was performed by Father Cline of Antioch. The couple was accompanied by Miss Lottie Genochio and Master Philip Marcal. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mrs. Marcal. The young couple then departed for San Rafael, where they spent several days. Mr. and Mrs. Genochio will reside at the bride's mother, Mrs. L. H. Marcal, at 2500 Pine street, San Francisco.

Occasionally a girl insists on a church wedding because she realizes it may be her last chance to show off in good clothes.

Fortune seldom knocks at a man's door the second time if he is too lazy to get up and open it the first time.

Some men stay away from church because they are not interested in millinery displays.

MENLO PARK OCCURRENCES

Paragraphs, Personal and Otherwise, From the Village of Beautiful Homes.

Professors Will Establish a "Stanford Colony"—Grading for the Electric Road.

Jack and Ed Doyle are at Gilroy Hot Springs.

Many from here will attend the Lomitas dance this evening.

Ben Muller has departed for San Francisco to accept a good position there.

Stanley McEvoy is up from San Luis Obispo county to spend a week with his parents.

The stables of A. J. Marcus were burglarized Saturday, and harness and robes to the value of $50 were removed.

The Goldsteins have rented the Mills place for the coming summer. They occupied the fine mansion last season.

Thomas Coleman and James Roach have gone to the Gilroy Hot Springs to work on the new buildings being constructed by John MacBain.

W. J. McPherson of Palo Alto, who sold his barber shop to Joe Larkin last week, will leave next week for Central America. He will look around for business opportunities in that country.

The Cemetery Association would be thankful to the gardners if in cleaning their places they would give their discarded plants to the Association to be placed in Holy Cross Cemetery.

Professor Fairclough of Stanford was winner of two golf tournaments held at the Menlo Park Golf and Country Club during the holidays. He received a handsome silver cup as a trophy.

Architect Hodges of Stanford recently bought the six-acre tract on the Middlefield road adjacent to the Palo Alto bridge and formerly rented by Con Maloney. This is a choice piece of real estate that was sought after by several parties.

William Rahtje in alighting from the noon train on Tuesday slipped and fell, rolling over several times within a few inches of the moving wheels of the cars. He got off the train while in motion. His escape from serious injuries was almost miraculous.

District Deputy Joseph Nash installed the officers of Menlo Parlor, N. S. G. W., Thursday evening. After the ceremony visiting brothers were banqueted. Large delegations were present from San Mateo, Palo Alto, and Halfmoon Bay.

Mr. Derby, brother of Mrs. R. Stevenson, passed away at his sister's home at Fair Oaks on Saturday. For many years he had been connected with the Southern Pacific Company and was highly esteemed by his associates for his many qualities and genial ways.

A well-dressed man hired a horse and buggy from J. E. Maloney on Wednesday saying he was going to Mountain View and would soon return but he didn't, and on Thursday the Sheriff's office was notified. It was learned that at the junction near Mountain View he endeavored to pass checks.

The Cemetery Association announces that hereafter notification to open graves in Holy Cross Cemetery must be given at least twenty-four hours before the time set for burial. Much pain to mourners, and much worry to the superintendent may be thus averted.

Work on the new electric road was begun Tuesday. Contractor Warren has a large force of men employed in grading for the track on the county road from Palo Alto to Mayfield. From the Barron bridge the road will be over a private right of way.

The Sunset Telephone Company is about to inaugurate the express system here which is now in operation at Palo Alto. By this system the sendor of a message becomes instantly in communication with "central" on taking down the receiver, thus avoiding the delay and annoyance of ringing two bells.

The engagement of Miss Edith Redding of Menlo Park, a student of Palo Alto High School, to William Watkins of Stanford University, is announced in the San Francisco papers. "Billy" Watkins is a member of the Chi Psi fraternity and a prominent and popular member of the class of 1906.

The dog poisoner is again at his nefarious work. A valuable canine belonging to one of Menlo's most respected citizens was poisoned this week. A reward of $50 will be given for information leading to the arrest and conviction of this wretch, who in order to "get even" takes the life of a dumb brute.

Quite a number of workmen employed by the McGilvray Company at work on the new gymnasium building were laid off last Monday. This action was caused by a scarcity of the building material. Some of the plasterers were transferred to the Museum, where work on the artificial stone exterior is being carried on.

Robert Anderson left Tuesday for Japan where he will spend a year studying the geological formations. Mr. Anderson will spend a part of his time with his brother Malcolm who is in Japan making a collection of botanical specimens for the British museum. Mr. Anderson is the youngest son of Professor M. B. Anderson of Menlo and is a senior at Stanford. He will return in 1906 and graduate with the class of '06.

J. J. Moore is about to subdivide his property at Fair Oaks into five-acre tracts to be placed on the market at once. The stables and fences on the site of the old home will be removed to Mr. Moore's ranch near the Bear Gulch Lake where he is to erect a handsome residence on the top of a high knoll overlooking the lake. The property to be sold is without doubt the choicest in the State for home sites and will find ready sale and attractive prices. Several prospective purchasers were here this week selecting choice parcels.

Professors Alerdice, Rolfe, Campbell, Dudley and Dodge, of Stanford University, closed an important deal Tuesday when they purchased the Bellview tract northeast of Holy Cross Cemetery and announced that they intended to develop their purchase and establish a "Stanford colony". The professional promoters intend to improve the land, and by building homes there attract other Stanford men, particularly those attached to the faculty of the University. The site of the Bellview tract is a very beautiful one, situated as it is among the foothills of the Santa Cruz Mountains, and should prove an attractive resort.

Beauty is only skin deep, but a sweet disposition extends all the way through.

BILIOUSNESS AND CONSTIPATION CURED BY THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

Because the liver is neglected people suffer with constipation, biliousness, headaches and fevers. Colds attack the lungs and contagious diseases take hold of the system. It is safe to say that if the liver were always kept in proper working order, illness would be almost unknown.

Thedford's Black-Draught is so successful in curing such sickness because it is without a rival as a liver regulator. This great family medicine is not a strong and drastic drug, but a mild and healthful laxative that cures constipation and may be taken by a mere child without possible harm.

The healthful action on the liver cures biliousness. It has an invigorating effect on the kidneys. Because the liver and kidneys do not work regularly, the poisonous acids along with the waste from the bowels get back into the blood and virulent contagion results.

Timely treatment with Thedford's Black-Draught removes the dangers which lurk in constipation, liver and kidney troubles, and will positively forestall the inroads of Bright's disease, for which disease in advanced stages there is no cure. Ask your dealer for a 25c. package of Thedford's Black-Draught.

MONKEY PRANKS.

The Way One Cunning Ape Served a Thieving Crow.

Recently a monkey got the better of the common enemy, the carrion crow, by feigning illness. He was fastened to a bamboo pole with a running ring. When he was on his perch the crows annoyed him by stealing from his porringer on the ground.

One morning they had been specially disagreeable. He closed his eyes and feigned a bad illness. When his day's food was brought him the crows descended upon it, and he had scarcely strength to defend it. By good acting he managed to capture one of the crows. To pluck it alive was the obvious course. Then, instead of pulling it to pieces, like the king monkey whom Kipling and Sir Edward Buck watched enjoying a similar triumph at Simla, this monkey tossed the crow into the air, where its own companions fell upon it and killed it.

Monkeys certainly have a sense of fun. Darwin used to spend hours watching a young female orang outang in the zoological gardens and was sure that she had the comic sentiment. She delighted to put upon her head, like a cap, a peculiar shaped bowl, which had a droll effect, and she was sensitive to the effect which her joke produced upon the spectators.—Lahore Tribune.

That cement curbing be constructed along each line of the roadway of Mound street in said town, from the right of way of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company on said street, to Spruce street and what is known as and called the County Road leading from San Francisco to San Jose.

Now is the time you should be getting more eggs—they're worth more money. Are you getting them? As a rule hens stop laying when prices go up but it is not their fault. They can't get the proper material. Feed them and they can't help but lay. It starts the egg-producing organs into action by furnishing the necessary elements. That's why it pays.

Wellington Improved Egg Food

Costs about 1 cent a day for 24 hens.

FOR SALE AT GROCERS, FEED STORES, and general supply houses, but if you cannot get it at your dealers send us his name and address and 25 cents and we will send you, prepaid, a package that will last a dozen hens 6 weeks and our book on feeding.

Send for our Book on Feeding, anyway. Free upon request.

Unique Public House.

In a busy thoroughfare in Glasgow there is a fully licensed public house, which is probably the smallest establishment of its kind in the kingdom. When full it can just accommodate eight customers. It is nicknamed the "Coffin," and the regular habitues give the various drinks, etc., names to correspond. A whisky is a "nail," a pint of beer a "lid," and brandy and soda is a "monument." The sandwiches are dubbed "gravestones" and the cigarettes "worms."

Mutual Distrust.

"A genius," said the young man with long hair and eyeglasses, "usually regards the world as a balky mule."

"Yes," answered Miss Cayenne, "and the world usually regards a genius as a horse that is trying to run away."—Washington Star.

The Proud Papa.

"Baby carriages? Yes, sir," said the dealer. "What sort of one did you want?"

"Well," said Napoo proudly, "you'd better give me a six months' size. He's only six weeks old, but large for his age."—Philadelphia Press.

A Deduction.

"He declares his wife made him all that he is."

"Quite likely. And I should judge that she didn't waste more than half an hour on the job."—Harper's Bazar.

There are indications that Tom Lawson is about to overcome his native modesty sufficiently to make another appearance in the frenzy performance.
